The Image of Poetry in Modern Jordanian Art An Analytic Study for Painting and Graphic Arts

The research is summarized in its topic “the image of poetry in contemporary Jordanian art an analytical study in painting and graphic artworks” with the attempt of investigating and reading the image of poetry in contemporary Jordanian art during the first decade of the twenty first century and revealing the poetic contents artists worded on in addition to presenting the researchers artistic experience in the field. In order to achieve that, the researcher has accomplished five chapters of this study; the first chapter presented the design and methodology of the research by raising a number of question about the image of poetry in Jordanian contemporary art, these question are:

What is the extent inspiring from poetry in contemporary Jordanian art?

Were Jordanian artist able to represent poems though painting and graphic?

What are the poetic contents Jordanian artists used in their artworks?

Did Jordanian artists produce artworks that are independent from the content of the poem, or simulating it?

What are the artistic styles and methods of producing artworks Jordanian artists used when working on poetry?

The second chapter is about previous studies, where the artist presents six studies related to his study (three studies in Arab language and three in English language) the third chapter is about the theoretical frame including three parts contemporary Arab art; third: poetry and painting in Jordanian contemporary art.

The fourth chapter in an analysis of the samples of the research, where 14 art works were analyzed, in addition of presenting the researchers personal experience.

The fifth chapter includes the findings of the research; of these sidings there were a lot of topics which the artists worked on, but mostly the main topics were the occupation of land – occupation of Palestine – and representing the Palestinian tragedy which Jordanian artists were very much effected by through working on the poems of the most distinct Palestinian poets including Mahmoud dervish who's known for writing about the resistance and the stolen land with developing his poetic language in on indirect speech that is full with longing to Palestine “the Arab Cause” . The death of Dervish also caused a lot of artworks, painting and graphic, as a celebration of his poems.

Arabic calligraphy was present in the researcher's artworks to completes the artworks, not in readable way.

The visual readings of poetic scripts vary in the produce artworks; it included direct borrowings of images in the poems content in some artworks, and spatial borrowings in other artworks the desert Jerusalem, and Granada.

Employment History

The image of the place was clear in the poems the researcher used in his artworks, which he concentrated on in building his artworks, like Jerusalem, Grande, and childhood places. The researcher uses multiple methods in producing his artworks that are based on poetry, but graphic works were clear with its different forms, either as painting or as art books.
