Learning Methodology

This subject is usually divided into rhythmical reading which we use the Italian method created by Pozzoli to improve the rhythmical reading skills. and on the other hand we use the Russian method by Kalmikov and Fridkin to improve the tuned reading skills. And finally the aural part that mixes the Russian and French system of teaching those skills, along with rhythmical and tuned dictations.

Assignments

This subject is based on interaction and practicing on class, thought students are asked to prepare, practice and memories numerous exercises that develop both aural, intonation and rhythmical skills.

Notes:

- Concerns or complaints should be expressed in the first instance to the module lecturer; if no resolution is forthcoming, then the issue should be brought to the attention of the module coordinator (for multiple sections) who will take the concerns to the module representative meeting. Thereafter, problems are dealt with by the Department Chair and if still unresolved the Dean and then ultimately the Vice President. For final complaints, there will be a committee to review grading the final exam.
